Canada Pension Plan Surviving Child's benefit

A dependent child of the deceased contributor may qualify for a Surviving Child's benefit if he or she is:

- under age 18; or
- age 18 or older, but under age 25, and in full-time attendance at school or university; and if the deceased contributor:

- had contributed to the Canada Pension Plan anytime since the start of the Plan in 1966; and
- had contributed to the Canada Pension Plan or had periods of insurance to the National Pension System and/or the Japanese pension systems for employees (from the start of the Canada Pension Plan in 1966) for a minimum period (which can vary between three and ten years, depending on the contributor's age at the time of death).

Canada Pension Plan Disabled Contributor's Child's benefit

A dependent child of the disabled contributor may qualify for a Disabled Contributor's Child's benefit if he or she is:

- under age 18; or
- age 18 or older, but under age 25, and in full-time attendance at school or university; and if the disabled contributor:

- is under the age of 65;
- is disabled within the meaning of the Canada Pension Plan. (The disability must be a physical or mental disability which is severe and prolonged. "Severe" means that he or she cannot regularly pursue any substantially gainful occupation; "prolonged" means that the disability is likely to be long continued and of indefinite duration, or is likely to result in death);
- has contributed to the Canada Pension Plan anytime since the start of the Plan in 1966; and
- has contributed to the Canada Pension Plan or has periods of insurance to the National Pension System and/or the Japanese pension systems for employees during four of the six years immediately prior to disablement or three of the six years immediately prior to disablement provided there is at least 25 years of coverage.

Completing the application form

Correspondence from Human Resources Development Canada concerning your application will be written in either English or French, whichever you prefer. At the top of the form in the space provided, please indicate the language in which you wish to receive such correspondence.

Please complete all name and address fields for yourself and the contributor in both Roman letters and in Kanji (if you are Japanese).

Section A – Information about the contributor

Questions 1 to 3

The information required in questions 1 to 3 refers to the Canada Pension Plan contributor; if:

- you are applying for a Surviving Child's benefit, the information provided refers to the deceased contributor;
- you are applying for a Disabled Contributor's Child's benefit, the information provided refers to the disabled contributor.

Section B – Information about the child of the contributor

Questions 4 to 8

The information required in questions 4 to 8 refers to the person making application for a Child's benefit. You should complete these questions using your own name and address.

Question 4A

Please give your Canadian Social Insurance Number (if you have one).

Your current home address is required to answer question 6. If you wish to receive correspondence concerning your application as well as benefit payments at a different address, please give this address in answer to question 7; otherwise, go to question 8.

Question 8

Please indicate your date of birth and submit your birth certificate or extract copy of Family Register.

Question 9

Please indicate whether an application has been made for, or if benefits have been received from either the Canada or the Quebec Pension Plan. If your answer is “Yes”, please provide the Social Insurance Number under which benefits were applied for or received.

A child may receive up to two flat-rate benefits under the Canada Pension Plan if both parents were Canada Pension Plan contributors and are either deceased or are disabled and if all conditions of eligibility are met with respect to both benefits.

Question 10

Please indicate whether you are the natural or legally adopted child of the contributor. If legally adopted, indicate the date of adoption.

Section C – Declaration of child

In signing the application, you attest to the truth of the information given in the application. You must notify Human Resources Development Canada of any changes that might affect your continued eligibility for benefits such as discontinuance of full-time school or university attendance. You also authorize the Japanese competent institution to furnish Human Resources Development Canada information which may affect your entitlement to the Canadian benefits for which you are applying.

Section D – Declaration of attendance at school or university

Question 12

Please indicate the contributor’s Canadian Social Insurance Number.

Question 13

Please give your Canadian Social Insurance Number (if you have one).

Questions 14 to 17

The information provided in questions 14 to 17 refers to your school or university enrollment and is required to determine whether or not you are eligible for benefits.

In signing the declaration, you attest to the truth of the information given in the application; undertake to notify Human Resources Development Canada should you interrupt or terminate your attendance at school or university and authorize the school or university to furnish Human Resources Development Canada with information regarding your enrollment and attendance.

Section E – To be completed by school or university

This section must be completed by the school or university and must be signed by an authorized official. The name and address of the school are required in the event that the school must be contacted for further information.

Protection of personal information

The information requested on the application will be used to determine your entitlement to a Child's benefit under the Canada Pension Plan. Under this legislation, information about you may be provided only to the agencies specifically entitled to receive it. In addition, the Privacy Act (Canada) prohibits the disclosure of your records without your consent except in specified circumstances (such as to comply with a warrant or subpoena or to enforce a law).

The information about you relating to your application for Canada Pension Plan Child's benefits will be retained in Personal Information Bank HRSDC PPU 175. You have a right to request access to any information about you which is in federal government files. To help you obtain this information, the government has published an Index of Personal Information. The index and information request forms may be obtained from Canadian embassies, high commissions and consulates.
